CYIA Rules

*Initial on blank Dress Code: Since we are working with a variety of people from various religious convictions, it is important that we not offend in our dress and at the same time, that we honor God with our dress. This means we are expecting very conservative dress - for some of you that may mean more conservative attire than you are used to wearing. If you have any doubts about a clothing item, don't bring it. All students and staff must present themselves, both in dress and physical features, in a manner consistent with their birth gender. Code for training week: You may wear shorts, although they must be of the longer variety (3" above the knee when kneeling)! Guys, please wear pants that fit snugly around your waist. No sagging. _ The following are not allowed: short shorts, tank tops, sleeveless shirts, tight Tshirts, spaghetti straps, belly shirts, immodest necklines or armholes (2" below collar bone + 2" below arm pit for arm holes), T-shirts designs that reflect anti-Christian values (i.e. occult, vulgar language, etc.). Nothing tattered or torn and no low rise skirts or pants. Hair should be kept clean, neat. No leggings unless under skirt or dress (3" above knee) Guys & Gals: No excessive body piercing. No excessive tattoos. Keep your appearance neat and clean. Nothing beyond ears & nose and only small studs in nose. Electronics: Directors will hold cell phones, I-pods, etc. There will be a specified time daily for contacting parents/quardians. Bring a separate alarm clock, not a phone for an alarm. (No computers/laptops.) *This is a week to pull away from distractions and focus on preparing for ministry. Done in bathrooms by 10:50 p.m., Lights out at 11:00 p.m. No crises after 10:00 p.m. Stay in assigned sleeping rooms until 7:00 a.m. Roaming out of sleeping rooms without appropriate excuse will result in a phone call to parents and KP for the entire next day. (KP is morning bathroom cleanup and dishes throughout the day.) Should a student be caught the second time out of the room without excuse, the student will discontinue the training and be sent home at their own expense with NO refund of training fee. No one leaving the buildings at night except for emergencies. In an emergency, a staff must accompany anyone leaving the dorm.

The dorm leaders will report excessive noise after lights out (talking, rowdy behavior, etc.) to the nighttime staff. Those reported will be assigned KP throughout the next day. Failure to follow instructions given by staff or room leaders will result in extra KP duties and if continued will result in the discontinuation of training. (In other words, student will be sent home.)
